A Great Success.

The ladies who have charge of the Hospital Flower Mission may feel tired to-day but they certainly ought to feel highly satisfied with the results of the fair arranged by them last evening at Independence Hall. The object of the ladies was to procure sufficient money to establish a bed at the Queen's Hospital under the patronage of the Flower Mission. Their call was promptly responded to.

Mrs. F. M. Swanzy, assisted by the ladies who have supported the Flower Mission, went to work in a most earnest manner.

Independence Hall has never been decorated in a more beautiful manner than it was last night. Senator Wright, who owns the place appeared actually stunned for a minute when he called in, and saw what a tasteful arrangement of flowers and flags could do towards the appearance of a hall.

The display of electric lights in a most artistic manner enhanced the beauty of the truly tropical scenery and the ladies who assisted in making the outlook complete even outshone by their beauty the flash of electricity.

Over $700 were realized during the evening. How and where it "got there" only the ladies can explain. The object was gained and some unfortunate stranger will some day bless the kind women who in the maelstrom of busy life gave a kind thought and substantial assistance to him and his associates.

Among the ladies assisting at the fair we mention besides the promoter, Mrs. Swanzy, Mesdames Macfarlane, Renjes, Porter Boyd, Von Holt, T. R. Walker, Fuller, S. C. Allen, and the Misses Cornwell, Walker, Along, Ward, McGrew, Hartwell, Carter, Robertson, McIntyre and many others.

Messrs. Hedemann, Baird and Pratt had charge of the stereopticon show, and as usual entertained the audience in a most interesting manner. Mr. F. M. Swanzy explained the views in his usual fascinating way.

A Special Occance.

On Friday, Seaborne Luce will sell at his auction rooms on Queen street, a very choice selection of palms, ferns and other potted plants. The plants will be on exhibition to-morrow, and ladies desiring to beautify their gardens and replenish their green houses will find it to their advantage to call around and make a bid. The plants offered are the finest ever placed for sale here, and have been selected from different gardens by Mr. Luce, who is the leading horticulturist in Honolulu.

The Council of State.

The adjourned session of the Council of State was called this afternoon at 2 o'clock. After a short discussion the council recommended that a pardon be granted to W. H. Rickard, T. B. Walker, and to R. Palau, Kausi, Aberahama, T. Poole and D. Damien. The pardons for these men will probably be issued to-morrow morning.
